STEPHEN BOROS, JR., Manager, Oakland. Infielder during playing career. Born-Flint, Mich., September 3, 1936. Home-Sarasota, Fla. Bats-R Throws-R Ht.-6' Wt.-185 Hungarian descent. Married; two children. Graduated Flint Northern High, 1954; played baseball, basketball and football. Graduate of University of Michigan with B.A. Degree in Literature; played varsity baseball. Was Michigan's captain-elect when he decided to play professional baseball. Hobbies-reading,writing, going to the theatre, movies, listening to music, tennis. (Is in the process of writing two novels. Once saw 15 plays during a two-week stay in London.) Played American Legion ball. Played semi-pro ball for Pierre (S.D.) Cowboys in the Basin League. Signed to first contract by John McHale, Ed Katalinas and Gene Desautels, Detroit Tigers. In 1959 he led Southern Association in stolen bases (23). In 1960 he led American Association in runs scored (128) and total bases (329), tied for lead in RBI (119), was second in hits (181), home runs (30) and doubles (42); was named third baseman on league All-Star team and voted American Association's Most Valuable Player. Hit three home runs in one game for Detroit against Cleveland in 1962. Greatest thrill as a player was setting a Cincinnati club record by playing 50 consecutive errorless games at third base, May 12-July 4, 1964. In 1965 he was co-winner of honors as Pacific Coast League's best defensive third baseman in a poll of league managers. Was selected Kansas City organization's Manager of the Year for 1972. In 1974 his San Jose Bees (California League) set a modern professional record by stealing 372 bases during the regular 140-game season. Coach, Kansas City Royals, 1975-79; Coach, Montreal Expos, 1981-82.

EDWARD WILLIAM NOTTLE, Coach, Oakland. Nickname-Skip. Born-Philadelphia, Pa., October 22, 1939. Home-Tucson, Ariz. Bats-R Throws-R Ht.-5'10" Wt.-180 English-Dutch-Indian descent. Married; one daughter. Graduated Palmyra (N.J.) High, 1956; played baseball and football. Hobbies-singing, reading, playing guitar, all sports. Played Babe Ruth League ball. Served in U.S. Army (101st Airborne Division) for three years. Pitched for 101st Division team at Fort Campbell, Ky., in 1957-58-59, and was named to Third Army All-Star team. In service ball he barely missed pitching two no-hitters in one week; in both games the lone hit came with two out in the ninth. In 1957 he broke the All-Army strikeout record set by ex-major leaguer Bob Buhl. Signed to first contract by Doc McCormick for Pensacola, Alabama-Florida League. Contract was acquired by Chicago White Sox organization in September, 1960. In 1961, pitching for Idaho Falls, Pioneer League, "I hit a home run to win a game, tripped over second base and was on crutches for three weeks". In 1962 he pitched 29 consecutive shutout innings, at the time a Northwest League record, from June 4 through June 27; scoreless string covered 11 games, one complete and ten in relief. Twice, in 1966 and 1968, he tied Southern League record by winning three games in relief on successive days. In 1968, with Evansville, he recorded decisions in five straight games in relief (May 5-9), two wins and three losses. In both 1962 and 1969 he made only one start during the year and pitched a shutout each time. At one time he was a professional singer, working in hotels and night clubs, and on television in Puerto Rico.

Graduated Mobile County Training High (Plateau, Ala.), 1956; played football. Hobbies-hunting, fishing, swimming. Played semi-pro ball for Mobile Black Bears. Signed to first contract by the late Ivy Griffin, Chicago Cubs. In 1957 he led Sooner State League in doubles (40), was third in RBI (95) and was named to league All-Star team. Was named to American Association and National Association Class AAA All-Star teams in 1960. In 1961 he was voted National League Rookie of the Year by Baseball Writers Association and National League Rookie Player of the Year by The Sporting News. Led National League in total bases (321) in 1968. In 1970 he led National League in runs scored (137) and total bases (373), tied for lead in hits (205); was named Player of the Year by Baseball Digest, finished second to Johnny Bench in voting for National League's Most Valuable Player. In 1972 he led National League in batting (.333), total bases (348) and slugging (.606), was second in RBI (122) and third in home runs (37); was named Major League Player of the Year by The Sporting News and again was second to Johnny Bench in balloting for National League's Most Valuable Player. Was only the third Cubs player to win the league batting title and the first since Phil Cavarretta in 1945. Played in Major League All-Star Game in 1962 (second game)-64-65-68-72-73, batting .273 in six games. Named to The Sporting News National League All-Star team in 1964-68-70-72. Is co-holder of major league records for most doubles in one game (4, April 9, 1969) and most home runs in two consecutive games (5, September 8-10, 1968). Holds National League record for most consecutive games played, 1,117, from September 22, 1963 to September 5, 1970; only Lou Gehrig (2,130) and Everett Scott (1,307), both in American League, have played more consecutive games in major league history. Is co-holder of National League record for most consecutive years with 600 or more times at bat (9), 1962-70. Hit three home runs in one game against New York at Wrigley Field, September 10, 1968. Greatest baseball thrills were (1) getting eight straight hits in a double-header (one less than major league record), July 11, 1972, against Houston at Chicago and (2) "when I was given a day in Chicago" in 1969. Batting Instructor, Chicago Cubs, 1978-79; Coach, Chicago Cubs, 1980-82; Coach, Oakland A's, 1983. Older brother, Franklin Williams, was an outfielder in Pittsburgh Pirates organization, 1955-58.
